Public Storage Canadian Properties Announces 2006 Income for Tax Purposes

TORONTO, Ontario – Public Storage Canadian Properties (“the Partnership”) (TSX: PUB) today announced the Partnership’s income for federal tax purposes of $8,858,061 for the tax year ended December 31, 2006 (“2006 Tax Income”). The 2006 Tax Income is allocated to Unitholders based on distributions received in 2006. The 2006 Tax Income is approximately 74.23% of distributions received.

The Partnership, through its Transfer Agent and Registrar, or Unitholder’s brokerage firm, will provide each Unitholder in 2006 with a Statement of Partnership Income, Canada Revenue Agency Form T-5013 Information Slip, and Montants attribués aux membres d’une société de personnes, Revenu Quebec Form RL-15 Slip, by March 31, 2007. These forms indicate the amount of income the Unitholder is responsible for reporting on their tax returns. Unitholders who have not received these forms should contact their broker or Transfer Agent and Registrar for assistance. Additional tax information is also provided on the Partnership’s website <http://www.publicstoragecanada.com/psCanada/Documents/Tax/2006/2006%20Tax%20Information.pdf>. Unitholders are advised to consult with their tax advisor regarding questions related to the reporting of partnership income on their federal and provincial returns.
